

Discussion Questions

Before Viewing:

Introduce the STORYTELLERS episode segment featuring Christina Bothwell, who creates figurative, opaque, clay and glass sculptures that focus on storytelling. Share this quote:

"I am a storyteller and I love stories. If something really touches me I have to process it and get it out by doing a piece." – Christina Bothwell

After Viewing:

1. What type of work does Christina Bothwell do?
2. How can a sculpture convey mood and suggest a story?
3. What kind of tools and materials does she use to create her sculptures? How does it affect the work produced?
4. Why does she combine clay and glass? How does this media contribute to the various qualities of her work?
5. How familiar are you with sculpture? Have you seen figurative sculptures or created one?